

Video Production Script: The Fear of God – A Journey of Awe and Wonder

Scene 1: Intro Opening (0:00-0:45)

Visuals: Slow zoom-in from wide shot of a cozy, lamplit room. The man sits in an armchair with a large, worn Bible on his lap.

Lighting: Warm, golden. Slight flicker like from a nearby fireplace or candle.

Music: Soft ambient piano (gentle, cinematic).

Narration: 'Come close now... Sit with me a while, my child. Tonight, I want to tell you of a journey—Not one with mountains and valleys, but one of the heart.'

Subtitle: 'Come close now... Sit with me a while, my child.'

Scene 2: Introduction (0:45-2:00)

Visuals: Medium close-up. The man opens his Bible. Light reflects off the gilded edges.

B-Roll: Rippling water, sunrise over mountains, field swaying in wind.

Narration: 'In the grand dance between heaven and earth... There exists a rhythm—sacred and deep...'

Subtitle: 'This is the fear that stands tall in awe... Not in terror, but in wonder.'

Scene 3: Scripture and Meaning (2:00-3:30)

Visuals: Close-up of the presenter reading Daniel 11:32 and Psalm 34:11.

Text on Screen: Lower third shows verses.

Narration: 'Daniel once said: "They that know their God shall be strong..."'

B-Roll: Artist apprentice scenes.

Scene 4: The Emotional Core (3:30-5:30)

Visuals: Presenter reflects. B-Roll: Ocean waves, mountaintops.

Narration: 'It's like standing before the ocean... and realizing you are small... And yet—you are seen.'

Scene 5: Reflective Motivation (5:30-7:00)

Visuals: Presenter's voice becomes firmer. B-Roll: Children, builders, prayer.

Narration: 'In this divine fear... we find strength. The strength to love fiercely... To lead boldly...'

Scene 6: Call to Action (7:00-8:30)

Visuals: Leans forward. B-Roll: Worship, journaling, candlelight prayer.

Narration: 'Let us tune our ears to the whispers of heaven. Let the fear of God shape your days...'

Scene 7: Key Takeaway (8:30-9:30)

Visuals: Wide shot, soft back glow.

Overlay: 'The fear of God is not a place—it is a path.'

Narration: 'The fear of God... isn't a destination. It's a way of living.'

Scene 8: Conclusion (9:30-10:30)

Visuals: Close-up, soft smile.

Narration: 'When the whispers of eternity meet the beat of our hearts... The fear of God... Is the brushstroke on the canvas of our lives.'

Scene 9: Final Reflection & Sign-Off (10:30-12:00)

Visuals: He gently closes Bible. Music fades out.

Narration: 'Like an apprentice beside a master... We learn. Let your fear of God be not a chain... But wings.'

Closing Line: 'I'm John Lyke... Your Pulpit Voice. Wishing y'all a wonderful holiday ahead. Kingdom's greetings.'
